Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-11, drawn to a specimen test cup, classified in class 422, subclass 61.
- II. Claim 14, drawn to a method of sample analysis by inverting and righting a sample container, classified in class 436, subclass 165.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus could be used with a different method, such as one that does not require inversion, but rather tilting the cup from side to side.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Newly submitted claim 14 is directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: See the above restriction requirement.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claim 14 is withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Davis (USP 5,119,830) or Davis (5,595,187).

See the appropriate paragraph of the 6/11/07 Office action.

The 9/25/07 amendments have added new limitations " ... and when so contacted ... reagent test strip" that do not appear to add further structural limitations that need to be addressed. The Office maintains the cited Davis references teach an absorbent pad that wicks the sample to the test strips and has been properly applied to the instant claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 9/25/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants' argue the instant invention requires a different method of exposing the test strips to the sample by inversions. The instant claims do not have structural features that are limited only to inversion. The Office maintains the cited prior art has been properly applied.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
